

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The first reading from today's liturgy is from the book of the Acts of the Apostles 6, 1-7. The early Christian community faced a conflict when those persons of Jewish origins who had converted to Christianity were treated more favorably than the Gentile Christians. The order of Deacon emerged from the life of the Church in the Holy Spirit to meet this challenge and the order of deacon was born. Last Saturday, May 6, Bishop Roger Gries at Saint John Cathedral ordained new deacons for our Diocese to minister like the first deacons of the Church. We ask God's blessing upon them, their wives and their families as they begin their vital ministry.

We are privileged to have a Deacon from our Diocese assigned to our parish for service, Deacon Dave Govern. Deacon Dave has many pastoral and financial skills and we are thankful to him and his wife Elaine for their generous service to our Church!

At the 930 am Mass we will crown the statue of our Blessed Mother Mary as a sign that she continues to watch over us to draw us ever closer to her Son and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Rev. Kevin C. Shemiga

C.L.O.W. Family Connection

Members of the same family often bear close resemblances to one another. Sometimes physical resemblances are shared within a family, but often the similarities are behavioral characteristics and mannerisms. We hear this observation affirmed through a number of common phrases: "He's a chip off the old block" or "She's her mother's daughter." Today's Gospel points to a mystery of faith that might be examined considering these familial relationships. In Jesus we see and know the Father. Likewise, the Father is known through the life and work of the Son, Jesus.

Talk together as a family about whether people outside of your family recognize common traits of your family. Are there physical resemblances that people recognize and so know each individual as a member of your family? Are there mannerisms that are shared by members of your family? What are some common interests and work that people might associate with your family? As you read today's Gospel, John 14:1-12, keep in mind that members of the same family share many characteristics, even though each person in the family is an individual. What does Jesus tell his disciples about his relationship with the Father? The relationship between the Father and Jesus is so close that Jesus says that those who have seen and known Jesus have also seen and known the Father. Jesus promises his disciples that because of their faith in him and in the Father, they too will be able to do the work of the Father as Jesus did.

The Catholic bishops of the world are planning to meet in October 2018 for the 15th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops. The theme of this gathering is "Youth, Faith and Vocational Discernment." In preparation for this major synod on youth, Pope Francis wants to gather input from the Catholic faithful. Consequently, the Diocese of Cleveland has made available a survey questionnaire to gather information on the current state of the young in our diocese that will be included as part of the pre-synod discernment document. The survey can be found on the diocesan website home page, www.dioceseofcleveland.org. All are invited and encouraged to participate by taking this short survey. The bishops of the United States pray that the results of this survey will help them more fully understand the experience of young people in our Church and in our country -- their hopes, dreams, fears and struggles -- so that the synod may bear fruit in offering more insight and direction to our ministry with young people.
