Dear Friends,

We welcome Father Theophalis Okpara who will preside and preach at the Masses this weekend. He is representing Cross Catholic Outreach who advocates for the poor and the vulnerable throughout the world. They are guided by the gospel principles of feeding the hungry, loving the orphan, and encouraging the powerless through education and other resources. Please give generously in the second collection, the second basket in our narthex, to this Catholic mission effort.

We invite you to Mass tomorrow evening, Monday, October 18, 6:30 pm on the feast of St Luke to pray for the sanctity of all human life, most especially the unborn, the elderly, and vulnerable children. The Mass will conclude at the Shrine of Saint Joseph with a vigil with our children.

Jesus in the gospel today speaks of true leadership in service. He is also speaking to all who are disciples. Service is at the center of the Church's ministry and mission. Disciples are at the center lifting those who are poor, confused, suffering, and sick.

A true disciple cannot serve God and neighbor unless prayer is first. A model for me as a person of prayer is Mother Teresa of Calcutta. I offer her as a saint to learn the importance of prayer. She began the day at the table of the Lord and in adoration of the Eucharist. She proclaimed prayer was at the center of her life. Even though much of her prayer and life was hidden in darkness, she knew God was with her and in the poor she served so well on the streets.

Prayer is a face-to-face meeting with God and entering into the heart of the family of Father, Son and Spirit. Prayer has many forms: Liturgical, devotional, personal, natural, and a big part of every human life!

My prayers for each of you every day.

Father Kevin

* Glory To God

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you,

we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son.

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,

with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

* 1st Reading

Isaiah 53: 10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Response

Psalm 33: 4-5, 18-19, 20 and 22

Music: Refrain: Richard Proulx

Lord, let your mer - cy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Tune: © 1986, GIA Publications, Inc. all rights reserved. Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-727738.

1. The word of the LORD is faithful, and all his works to be trusted. The LORD love justice and right, and his merciful love fills the earth.
2. Yes, the LORD's eyes are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.
3. Our soul is waiting for the LORD. He is our help and our shield. May your merciful love be upon us, as we hope in you, O LORD.

* 2nd Reading

Hebrews 4: 14-16

Brothers and sisters: Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Gospel

Mark 10: 35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

The Gospel of the Lord. PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily Reflection on The Word

* Profession of Faith The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

Back in June of this year, you might recall that I had shaved my facial hair into a Fu Man Chu to raise awareness for Alzheimer's and to raise money for the Alzheimer's Association. Last Saturday, I participated in the Walk to End Alzheimer's with my family in honor of my grandmother, who suffered from this terrible disease. It was a wonderful event where families that have been affected by Alzheimer's came together to support each other.

Through your gracious donations and my online campaign, I was able to raise $1625 for the Alzheimer's Association for the walk, and as a team, the Marge Squad raised over $2600. I am incredibly humbled by your support and generous hearts. I cannot thank you enough for contributing to my personal mission to do what I can to try and find a cure. I pray for all who suffer with Alzheimer's and dementia and the families that walk that journey with them.

May God be with you and bless you!

Matthew Griffith and family

"God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives."

To understand more fully how to defend and protect human life, we must first consider who we are, at the deepest level. God creates us in his image and likeness, which means we are made to be in a loving relationship with him. The essence of our identity and worth, the source of our dignity, is that we are loved by God: "We are not the sum of our weaknesses and failures; we are the sum of the Father's love for us and our real capacity to become the image of his Son."
