I would like to congratulate all our second graders who will be making their First Holy Communion on Sunday April 28 at 10:30 Mass.

It is always encouraging to me to see the awe and wonder in the eyes of our children who are making their First Communion. It's a reminder to me to make sure I don't take receiving Jesus in the Eucharist at each Mass for granted.

I want to remind all of our parents that the Church states that you are the primary teachers of your children in the faith. It's the job of the priest, deacon, and community to support you but not replace you. Church attendance can be a challenge with all the commitments your families have, but I encourage you to make church attendance a priority. You may not feel it, but even when you come to church when you don't really feel like it, you receive graces. If we wait until the perfect opportunity comes along with our schedules, families, our health and so forth to come to church, there would probably be nobody in church. Sometimes we have to "fake it until we make it" like my Dad used to say about doing things that are good for us even when we don't want to.

I will be celebrating 15 years of being ordained as a Deacon on May 2, 2024. I'm not sure where the time went but it as been an amazing experience.

I want to thank everyone at Our Lady of Guadalupe for your desire to be a part of this parish and work in our respective ministries in order for OLG to thrive and not just survive.

Thank you for all your hard work.

In Jesus' love,

Deacon Dave Govern

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading: Acts 9: 26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus. The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers. The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

 peo-ple, I will praise you, Lord.

1. My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
 The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
 They shall praise the LORD, those who seek him.
 May their hearts live on forever and ever!
2. All the earth shall remember and return to the LORD,
 all families of the nations worship before him.
 They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
 before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.
3. And my soul shall live for him, my descendants serve him.
 They shall tell of the LORD to generations yet to come,
 declare his saving justice to peoples yet unborn:
 "These are the things the LORD has done."

* 2nd Reading: 1 John 3: 18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse:

"Remain in me as I remain in you," says the Lord;
 "Whoever remains in me bears much fruit."
 (John 15: 4a, 5b)

* Gospel John 15: 1-8

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

The Gospel of the Lord. PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

* Homily: Reflection on The Word

* Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through Him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,
 (At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)
 and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
 and became man.
 For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and
 His kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
