Dear Friends,

Jesus in the gospel speaks about the resurrection. It is difficult for any of us to imagine what this will be like! Pope Francis invites us to try to imagine us standing before God in the resurrection before we make any decisions in this life. Last Monday Francis preached:

I would offer a third thought about the resurrection. I take it from the Spiritual Exercises, where Saint Ignatius suggests that before making any important decision, we should imagine ourselves standing before God at the end of time. That is the final and inevitable moment, one that all of us will have to face. Every life decision, viewed from that perspective, will be well directed since it is closer to the resurrection, which is the meaning and purpose of life. As the departure is calculated by the goal, as the planting is judged by the harvest, so life is best judged by starting from its end and purpose. Saint Ignatius writes: “Let me consider myself as standing in the presence of my judge on the last day, and reflect what decision on the present matter I would then wish to have made; I will choose now the rule of life that I would then wish to have observed” (Spiritual Exercises, 187). It can be a helpful exercise to view reality through the eyes of the Lord and not only through our own; to look to the future, the resurrection, and not only to this passing day; to make choices that have the flavor of eternity, the taste of love.

During this month of November, we continue to pray at the Eucharist and in the Liturgy of the Hours for all our deceased brothers and sisters who we believe to share with Christ in the resurrection.

Please try to participate in the Mass during this month and pray for all the dead. Also, it would be a good practice to go, pray at the cemetery, and visit the graves of our loved ones and look forward to the day we will rise with them!

If you want me to remember your beloved dead at Mass and in the Office this month and as we end the year in December during Advent, please use your All Souls envelopes and place these in the collection basket. There is no need to place money in the envelope, only if you wish.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord!

* 1st Reading: 2 Maccabees 7: 1-2, 9-14 *

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God’s law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: “What do you expect to achieve by questioning us? We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors.”

At the point of death he said: "You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying."

After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again." Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man’s courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing.

After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way. When he was near death, he said, "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

Psalm 17: 1, 5-6, 8, 15
Scot Crandal

1. Hear, O LORD, a just suit; attend to my outcry; hearken to my prayer from lips without deceit.

2. My steps have been steadfast in your paths, my feet have not faltered. I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God; incline your ear to me; hear my word.

3. Keep me as the apple of your eye, hide me in the shadow of your wings. But I in justice shall behold your face; on waking I shall be content in your presence.

* 2nd Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:16 – 3:5 *

Brothers and sisters: May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified, as it did among you, and that we may be delivered from perversive and wicked people, for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

* Verse: *
Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead; to him be glory and power, forever and ever.
(Revelation 1: 5a, 6b)

[Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward] and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her." [Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called them 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."]

The Gospel of the Lord. PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

On November 23rd and 24th, the MFTIN Giving Tree will be bursting with festive ornaments to request holiday gifts for the following groups: Hattie Larlham, Womankind, Battered Women’s Shelter, Our Lady of the Wayside, and our local families. Please take an ornament and return a wrapped gift with its related tag by December 8th to share in the joy of this sacred season!

The OLG Ministry for Those in Need thanks you and your generosity for the money and numerous items donated on November 2nd and 3rd during our Food Pantry Collection. Because of you, food baskets for our local families will be overflowing with holiday goods and cheer. As we plan for our long Ohio winter, please be assured that you are not forgetting those who are more vulnerable than yourself. Nothing can dim the warmth and enthusiasm you are showing for our less fortunate neighbors. Blessings to you for your kindness.

On Thanksgiving Day, OLG’s Mass will be celebrated at 10AM. As we’ve done in the past, we will collect nonperishable food, as well as paper products for the OLG Ministry For Those in Need; the ministry will then use these items when assembling their Christmas baskets. Keep these items with you in the pew as you come to Mass on Thanksgiving morning. At the offertory time, you’ll be invited to bring your donations forward and set them on the sanctuary steps. (After Mass, your help in carrying the donations to the pantry would be most appreciated.)

Today’s readings reinforce our faith that beyond death there is life with God forever. Because of the brothers, in the Gospel, conviction in the resurrection of the dead this enabled the sons to remain faithful to their beliefs. They were loyal to their Jewish faith. This is a great example for us today to remain faithful to our Catholic faith. There is a lot of distractions and temptations to draw us to fail in remaining faithful to the truths taught to us by Jesus. We need to pray often for God’s grace to follow the teachings of the church, defend right from wrong and ask Jesus and the Holy Spirit to guide us on the path of life.

Not all Jews at the time of Jesus believed in the resurrection of the dead. The Sadducees were one of these groups. They proposed the question of the seven brothers who all married, after one another died, the same woman asking whose wife she would be at the Resurrection. They wanted to stump Jesus. Jesus’ answer is concise and to the point. At the Resurrection of the dead they neither marry nor are given in marriage. They are like angels and they are children of God and will not die. The point Jesus makes is that God did not say, “I was their God,” but that “I am their God.” They are alive because God is the God of the living. They are eternally alive because of God’s eternal “I Am.” God’s name is the assurance that our faithful departed are alive in God. At the Resurrection we will rise, so don’t worry about who you will see or be with because you will be with God and will be as the angels.

Funeral Mass Welcoming Ministry

We have many visitors to our parish when attending a Funeral Mass who, most often, have never been here before. We think it would be great to start a Funeral Mass Welcoming Ministry here at OLG. Duties include handing out Worship Aids, directing people where to go, smiling and just expressing that wonderful OLG welcoming spirit. A little kindness in a situation like this can go a long way!

For more information, contact Don Grabowy at 330-468-2194, ext. 129 or don@olg.cc

Stephen Ministry

Sometimes you are faced with difficult times in your life such as poor health, divorce, depression or even aging. You need someone outside the support of family and friends. A Stephen Minister can be the person for you.

Stephen Ministers: Listen, Explore Feelings, Pray, Share Christ’s Love, Maintain Confidentiality, Attend to the care giving process and leave the results to God.

How it works is you would be paired with a Stephen Minister who would meet with you weekly for approximately an hour. In the weeks or months of meeting it should become obvious that this is a program of Christ caring for people through people.

For more information and testimonials of some people whose lives have been touched by a Stephen Minister, contact Carol Kucharski at 330.468.3462 or visit the Stephen Ministry website at www.stephenministries.org.
