From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

We hear in the gospel:

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel."
Jn 1:29-34

Indeed, the concrete sign that we have truly encountered Jesus is the joy that we show in communicating it to others. Reading the Gospels, we see that this was the experience of the first ones who met Him. John the Baptist pointed him out: Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world! Sin produces sadness. Jesus is joy!

To encounter Jesus is to experience his love. This love transforms us and makes us able to transmit to others the power it gives. In a way we could say that from the day of our Baptism each one of us is given a new name in addition to the one given to us by our mom and dad; My extra name given to me by my parents is Christopher! Pope Francis wrote: We are given the name "Christopher". We are all "Christophers". What does that mean? "Bearers of Christ". It is the name of our attitude, the attitude of a bearer of the joy of Christ, of the mercy of Christ. Every Christian is a "Christopher", that is, a bearer of Christ! (Jubilee audience, 30 January 2016)

Before we approach the table of the Lord at Mass, the Bread of the Eucharist is presented to us who desire Him. The words of the Baptist are proclaimed again at the Lord's table. We are invited to union with Jesus who desires our intimacy and gives us grace, his joy.

The best mark of us as disciples and the Church is joy. Joy comes from deep within our souls where God in the Spirit celebrated in the sacraments abides. We are invited to joy this day and every day. In joy, we proclaim Jesus the Lamb, sacrificed for sins.

Thank you to all who made our Christmas so beautiful. For those who gave to the poor through our giving Christmas tree, the music on Christmas night, those who decorated outside and inside, and the presence of so many at Mass, was cherished and wonderful. Lastly, I thank you for your sacrifices in the Christmas collection. The challenge for the new year is to maintain our financial health. We can do this if everyone comes to Sunday Masses and prayerfully give what they are able. Please return the commitment card that was mailed to you in December. There is a box provided at the entrance of the Church. The collection basket remains there as well. We will not pass the basket at Mass.

At the end of the month, Deacon Dave is giving a reflection on our finances in the bulletin, website, and Facebook.

God bless you in the new year!

Father Kevin

The Liturgy of The Word

1st Reading: Isaiah 49: 3, 5-6

The LORD said to me: You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory. Now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him; and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength! It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

Response Psalm 40: 2, 4ab, 7-8a, 8b-9, 10

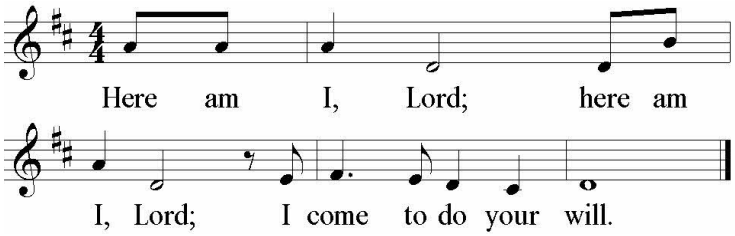
Music: Michel Guimont



1. I waited, waited for the LORD,
   and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry.
   He put a new song into my mouth,
   praise of our God.
2. You delight not in sacrifice and offerings,
   but in an open ear.
   You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
   Then I said, "See, I have come."
3. In the scroll of the book it stands written of me:
   "I delight to do your will, O my God:
   your instruction lies deep within me."
4. Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.
   My lips I have not sealed;
   you know it, O LORD.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 1: 1-3

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

VERSE:

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.
To those who accepted him,
he gave power to become children of God.
(John 1: 14a, 12a)

Gospel: John 1: 29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Homily Reflection on The Word of God

Profession of Faith The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
