The Holy Father Francis invites all to listen to Christ and each other! He writes:

The first path has to do with the command that God the Father addresses to the disciples on Mount Tabor (Gospel Second Sunday in Lent) as they contemplate Jesus transfigured. The voice from the cloud says: "Listen to him" (Mt 17:5). The first proposal, then, is very clear: we need to listen to Jesus. Lent is a time of grace to the extent that we listen to him as he speaks to us. And how does he speak to us? In the word of God, which the Church offers us in the liturgy. May that word not fall on deaf ears; if we cannot always attend Mass, let us study its daily biblical readings, even with the help of the internet. In addition to the Scriptures, the Lord speaks to us through our brothers and sisters, especially in the faces and the stories of those who are in need. Let me say something else, which is quite important for the synodal process: listening to Christ often takes place in listening to our brothers and sisters in the Church. Such mutual listening in some phases is the primary goal, but it remains always indispensable in the method and style of a synodal Church.

The LORD said to Abram: “Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you.

“I will make of you a great nation,
and I will bless you;
I will make your name great,
so that you will be a blessing.
I will bless those who bless you
and curse those who curse you.
All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you.”

Tune: © 1986, GIA Publications, Inc. All rights reserved. Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-727738.

1. The word of the LORD is faithful, and all his works to be trusted.
The LORD loves justice and right,
and his merciful love fills the earth.
2. Yes, the LORD’s eyes are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.
3. Our soul is waiting for the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.
May your merciful love be upon us,
as we hope in you, O LORD.

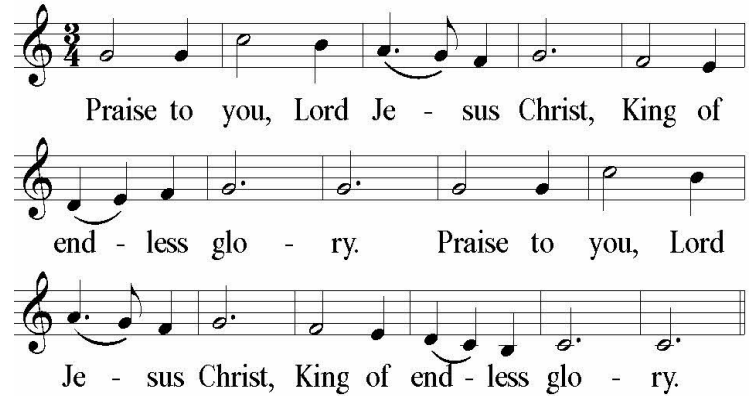

*2nd Reading: _____ 2 Timothy 1: 8b-10

Beloved: Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God. He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

*Gospel: _____ Matthew 17: 1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Rise, and do not be afraid.” And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, “Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

*Homily _____ Reflection on The Word of God

*Profession of Faith The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Dear Friends,

Traditionally, on the Second Sunday of Lent, the gospel is of the Transfiguration of Jesus. Jesus invites Peter, James, and John to climb the mountain of glory. On the peak, they enter heaven! Peter does not want to leave: "Lord, it is good for us to be here!" Peter shouts in joy. What are the transfiguring moments of your life? Recently, I asked our Staff to reflect on the question. We had a moving time of conversation and grace. Each of us shared joy and peace. I am inviting you to do this with your family or friends. May this sharing lead us to a deep faith in Jesus, the One we follow to the mountain of heaven.

Tomorrow evening we conclude a two-part presentation on the Sacrament of Penance with Father Jerry Bednar. Father Jerry will preside at the 6.30 pm Mass and follow in the Church with the presentation. Please deepen our understanding of Christ's presence in the Sacrament of Penance through our participation at the Mass and talk.

Wednesday evening from 5-8 pm, we will celebrate Confessions at our Church and every Church in the Diocese of Cleveland. Please take advantage of the opportunity to share in forgiveness, mercy, and sorrow for our sins.

The Pastoral and Finance Councils met jointly and addressed the finances of our parish and some ways to engage all in the life of our Church. The following are some reflections and facts from the gathering:

Commitment Cards results. About 1,500 cards were mailed to parishioners; 162 cards were returned.

We need all to participate financially, there is aa need to focus on a younger generation ('30s-'40s).

Could we send a survey via email to discover what parishioners desire in our parish?

Some Fundraising Possibilities

Spaghetti Dinner

Monte Carlo Night

Gala event - ~$250 admission – would need a big-ticket item to raffle off Cornhole Tournament – entrance fee. Sell concessions at the tournament International Festival – ethnic foods to be served (something similar to St. Monica's festival)

Deacon Dave reported:

We are current in expenses.

Bids for the parking lot and roof were discussed.

Copier expenses are high due to the number of copies we produce. (Funerals, worship aids, etc.) Deacon Dave will check the lease and see if we can negotiate a new cost per copy when we go over the allotted number.

Action items:

Post a 2-month calendar on the bulletin board for the parish to see activities.

Contact those who have not submitted a commitment card.

Plan on celebrating the Sunday Eucharist and Confession this Lent!

Prayers,

Father Kevin

VBS FUNDRAISER

STOP!! Don't throw away your old tennis shoes!!!

For the month of March, there will be a bin in the narthex to place tennis shoes that you don't wear anymore. We will collect the shoes and then bundle them and ship them to GotSneakers, an organization that recycles shoes.

OLG VBS will get money for each pair, with the amount determined by the brand and condition of the shoes.

Now is a great time to clean out your closet! Unfortunately, only sneakers can be collected- no sandals, dress shoes, or boots. We will collect donated shoes from March 1-31.

St. Jude, helper of the hopeless, pray for us.
