Dear Friends,

Today in the gospel we hear one of the greatest proclamations of faith. Martha says to her friend and Lord Jesus:

"Yes, Lord.

I have come to believe that you are Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." (John 11)

As the Christ, Jesus has power over death in all its forms. When God created the world, God did not create death. God desires that we live forever. Death is an enemy, Sin results in death. God loves us forever. God in Jesus' passion, death and resurrection abolished our death.

But we fear death. Death is against our nature. Martha declared the faith of the Church in Jesus Christ. The fall of humanity into death is saved through Jesus and our faith in Him. In Jesus God wept when sin and death entered our world. At the grave of Lazarus, Jesus wept the tears of God: tears of grief connected with hope in the resurrection. Both are necessary.

Death is not God's plan for us. We cry, God cries in his Son giving hope. Jesus is Christ and our entry into a new world without death.

Next weekend, we begin Solemn Holy Week with Palms on the Sunday of the Lord's Passion culminating with the Three days of Easter from Holy Thursday evening ending on Easter Sunday.

We welcome Bishop Roger Gries to our Parish of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Bishop Roger will preside at the most Solemn Mass at 10:30 am on Sunday morning with a Procession and proclamation of Matthew's Passion narrative .

Mr. Matthew and the Tetelestai community gave a most beautiful presentation last weekend for our Parish and the city of Macedonia. I invite you to read his words:

Last weekend, I hope you were able to join us for the Passion play, Tetelestai, here at Our Lady of Guadalupe. OLG hosted 3 spirit filled performances that hopefully enhanced your Lenten journey this year.

Just a quick note of thanks to all of those who helped make this a successful weekend! First, thanks to Father Kevin for being open to this opportunity to evangelize to OLG and the surrounding community. A special thank you to Cindy Holub, who was the lead organizer for the event. She gathered a wonderful team who was instrumental in planning, hosting, and publicizing the event. Thank you to those on that planning committee, I know you worked hard in the months leading up to the weekend. Thanks to all of our volunteers that helped pass out programs, helped park cars, cleaned the bathrooms, prepared the reception, and cleaned up.

Lastly, thanks to everyone who contributed baked goods to the receptions, I have never seen so many cookies!

NO PSR-SPRING BREAK

Finally, on a personal note, it meant a great deal for me to share the ministry of Tetelestai with you all. This ministry has played an important role in my relationship with God and has helped guide me to where I am today. I was excited to share the Gospel with you in this prayerful and powerful way. I look forward to continuing to lead our youth here at OLG on a mission to become saints.

All love,
Mr. Matthew

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading:

Ezekiel 37: 12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleadings.
2. If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,
Lord who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness, that you may be revered.
3. I long for you, O LORD, my soul longs for his word.
My soul hopes in the Lord
more than watchmen for daybreak.
Let Israel hope for the LORD.
4. For with the LORD there is mercy,
in him is plentiful redemption.
It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

2nd Reading: Romans 8: 8-11

Brothers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse:

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord;
whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will never die.
(John 11: 25a, 26)

Gospel: John 11: 3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

The sisters of Lazarus sent word to Jesus, saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." He became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Homily _____ Reflection on The Word of God

Profession of Faith _____ The Apostle's Creed
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Tenebrae is Latin for shadows of darkness. The distinctive feature of the service is the gradual extinction of all the lights in the church until only one candle, known as the Christ candle, remains lit. The dimming of the lights signifies Christ abandoned by all at His passion. The atmosphere of this service is monastic and it invites your participation and quiet reflection. Please join us for "Tenebrae" on Wednesday, April 5th at 7:00 p.m. in the church.

THE 2023 MASS BOOK

The 2023 Mass Book still has many openings.
Besides having a mass remembrance for a deceased loved one, masses can be intended for the living. Birthdays and anniversaries are special days that can be remembered with a mass
