Dear Friends,

True love is free! Jesus willingly chose to enter his passion and death on the cross for the love of us. Matthew in the gospel is very clear about this truth. Jesus' life is not taken from him. He intends to enter the cross and resurrection. Jesus does not endure punishment on our behalf, nor does the Father take vengeance for sin. Death, the enemy of God and us, is abolished and absolved through Jesus' freedom to die for us. In a sacred response, let us freely choose Jesus' love on the cross.

Please be generous in our Easter collection by using both the Easter Sunday envelope and your regular Sunday envelope. Those collections are vital to the financial health of our parish.

All are invited to the Sacred Liturgies of Holy Week and the Three Days of Easter!

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading: Isaiah 50: 4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Response: Psalm 22: 8-9, 17-18a, 19-20, 23-24

Music: Donald Grabowy

Verses © 2010, 2018 Conception Abbey/The Grail, admin by GIA Publications. All rights reserved.

1. All who see me deride me;
they curl their lips, they toss their heads:
"He trusted in the LORD, let his save him;
let him release him, for in him he delights."

2. For dogs have surrounded me;
a band of the wicked besets me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet;
I can count every one of my bones.

3. They divide my clothing among them,
they cast lots for my robe.
But you, O LORD, do not stay afar off;
my strength, make haste to help me!

4. I will tell of your name to my kin,
and praise you in the midst of the assembly;
"You who fear the LORD, give him praise;
all descendants of Jacob, give him glory;
revere him, all you descendants of Israel."

*2nd Reading: Philippians 2: 6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

Verse:

Christ became obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.
(Philippians 2: 8-9)

Gospel:Matthew 27: 11-54*

Jesus stood before the governor, Pontius Pilate, who questioned him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" Jesus said, "You say so." And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he made no answer. Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you?" But he did not answer him one word, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Now on the occasion of the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they wished. And at that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. So when they had assembled, Pilate said to them, "Which one do you want me to release to you, Barabbas, or Jesus called Christ?" For he knew that it was out of envy that they had handed him over. While he was still seated on the bench, his wife sent him a message, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man. I suffered much in a dream today because of him." The chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas but to destroy Jesus. The governor said to them in reply, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They answered, "Barabbas!" Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus called Christ?" They all said, "Let him be crucified!" But he said, "Why? What evil has he done?" They only shouted the louder, "Let him be crucified!" When Pilate saw that he was not succeeding at all, but that a riot was breaking out instead, he took water and washed his hands in the sight of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood. Look to it yourselves." And the whole people said in reply, "His blood be upon us and upon our children." Then he released Barabbas to them, but after he had Jesus scourged, he handed him over to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus inside the praetorium and gathered the whole cohort around him. They stripped off his clothes and threw a scarlet military cloak about him. Weaving a crown out of thorns, they placed it on his head, and a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" They spat upon him and took the reed and kept striking him on the head. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the cloak, dressed him in his own clothes, and led him off to crucify him.

As they were going out, they met a Cyrenian named Simon; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross. And when they came to a place called Golgotha — which means Place of the Skull —, they gave Jesus wine to drink mixed with gall. But when he had tasted it, he refused to drink. After they had crucified him, they divided his garments by casting lots; then they sat down and kept watch over him there. And they placed over his head the written charge against him: This is Jesus, the King of the Jews. Two revolutionaries were crucified with him, one on his right and the other on his left. Those passing by reviled him, shaking their heads and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself, if you are the Son of God, and come down from the cross!" Likewise the chief priests with the scribes and elders mocked him and said, "He saved others; he cannot save himself. So he is the king of Israel! Let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. He trusted in God; let him deliver him now if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" The revolutionaries who were crucified with him also kept abusing him in the same way. From noon onward, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And about three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Some of the bystanders who heard it said, "This one is calling for Elijah." Immediately one of them ran to get a sponge; he soaked it in wine, and putting it on a reed, gave it to him to drink. But the rest said, "Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to save him." But Jesus cried out again in a loud voice, and gave up his spirit.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

And behold, the veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth quaked, rocks were split, tombs were opened, and the bodies of many saints who had fallen asleep were raised. And coming forth from their tombs after his resurrection, they entered the holy city and appeared to many. The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake and all that was happening, and they said, "Truly, this was the Son of God!"

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.HomilyReflection on The Word of God*Profession of FaithThe Apostle's Creed*

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,

 was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
 on the third day He rose again from the dead;
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Antiphon:

(Psalm 66: 2-3a, 3bc-4, 5-6ab, 6c-7, 8-9, 16-17, 19-20)

1. Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God, "How tremendous are your deeds!"
2. Because of your greatness and your strength, your enemies fawn upon you.
Before You all the earth shall bow down,
shall sing to you, sing to your name.
3. Come and see the works of God,
his wondrous deeds among the children of Adam.
He turned the sea into dry land;
they passed through the river on foot.
4. Let our joy then be in Him;
He rules forever by his might.
His eyes keep watch on the nations;
let rebels not exalt themselves.
5. O peoples, bless our God;
let the voice of His praise resound,
of the God who gave life to our souls,
and kept our feet from stumbling.
6. Come and hear, all who fear God;
I will tell what He did for my soul.
To Him I cried aloud,
with exaltation ready on my tongue.
7. But truly God has listened;
He has heeded the voice of my prayer.
Blest be God, who did not reject my prayer,
nor withhold from me His merciful love.
8. Give praise to the Father Almighty,
to His Son, Jesus Christ the Lord,
to the Spirit who dwells in our hearts,
both now and forever, Amen.

Tenebrae is Latin for shadows of darkness. The distinctive feature of the service is the gradual extinction of all the lights in the church until only one candle, known as the Christ candle, remains lit. The dimming of the lights signifies Christ abandoned by all at His passion. The atmosphere of this service is monastic and it invites your participation and quiet reflection. Please join us for

"Tenebrae" on Wednesday, April 5th at 7:00 p.m. in the church.

The more we love now, the greater our treasure grows in heaven.

New for parents with young children!!! Toddler library

In the narthex, you will find a book rack with board books and other items for your child to use during Mass. There are books that help your child follow along with the Mass with pictures. There are picture books of stories from the Bible.

Your child is free to take a book before Mass, then please return it to the book rack so other children will be able to use the books too.

If you have books you would like to donate to this library, you are free to leave them in the book rack. Thanks to those who have donated books already!

Easter Egg Delivery for this Easter IS BACK!! The night before Easter, the OLG Easter bunnies will spread candy filled eggs over your front lawns and the children will wake to a surprise in their yard, with a sign stating, "He is Risen." I would like to do this again this
