

Dear Friends,

Luke 24, 13-35

The gospel story we read today is about the mysterious presence of the risen Christ to the two disciples on the way to Emmaus. One of the greatest stories in all of the scriptures. The two disciples were somber, grieving because their friend and Lord was crucified and buried. Their disappointment caused them to go to Emmaus, a small town, and further away from the other disciples and the tomb of Jesus. They tried to forget, yet they heard a story Jesus was alive! Into their path came a stranger and fellow traveler, Jesus. Jesus listened to their story and entered their hearts. He gently explained suffering was part of the journey. Death on the cross is the way to glory. Luke tells us:

As they approached the village to which they were going,
he gave the impression that he was going on farther.
But they urged him, "Stay with us,
for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over."
So he went in to stay with them.
And it happened that, while he was with them at the table,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.
With that, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him,
but he vanished from their sight.

As Jesus breaks bread with us at our altar, He enters our path, our story, and listens to our hearts! Jesus explains the cross is necessary for us as well to enter into His glory! We are not victims. We are fellow travelers with Jesus and companions.

Thank you for all your support for our catholic charities appeal. Although 110 families generously supported the campaign from our parish, we did not meet our goal. If you did not participate this winter, please consider an offering to support our poor in our diocese. Go to www.dioceseofcleveland.org/offices/catholic-charities to make your contribution.

Next Sunday, we are celebrating the first communion with our second grade at 10:30 am Mass. All are welcome to participate in the wonderful mystery of the Eucharist with our young, their parents, family, and friends.

My prayers for them and all of you,

Father Kevin

The Liturgy of The Word

* 1st Reading:

Acts 2: 14, 22-23

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. “My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear.”

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

1. Preserve me, O God, for in you I take refuge.
I say to the LORD, “You are my Lord.”
O LORD, it is you who are my portion and cup;
you yourself who secure my lot.
2. I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel,
who even at night directs my heart.
I keep the LORD before me always;
with him at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
3. And so, my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my flesh shall rest in hope.
For you will not abandon my soul to hell,
nor let your holy one see corruption.
4. You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand, bliss forever, at your right hand, bliss forever.

* 2nd Reading: 1 Peter 1: 17-21

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one’s works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

* Gospel Luke 24: 13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus’ disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, “What are you discussing as you walk along?” They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, “Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?” And he replied to them, “What sort of things?” They said to him, “The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see.” And he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?” Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, “Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over.” So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?” So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, “The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!” Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

How well do you know Jesus?

If there is one person that we should each get to know in a deeply personal way, it is Jesus -- the carpenter from Nazareth, the itinerant preacher, the Son of God, the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords, the Lamb of God, the new Adam, the Messiah, the Alpha and Omega, the Chosen One, the Light of the World, the God-Man who wants good things for us more than we want them for ourselves.

We need 50 Hail Mary's

So we are calling on the whole parish to get involved.

All adults, teens, PSR students, elementary school students, and seniors.

On Mother's Day weekend, please join the LIFE Matters group in our Mother's Day flower sale! You may purchase a flower or bouquet for the mothers in your life, or buy them for Mary, our Blessed Mother, and offer her a spiritual bouquet and your prayer requests!

Following each Mass, parishioners are invited to write down their prayer intentions and offer them to Our Lady along with flowers of thanksgiving for her motherly love and intercession. There will be slips of paper and pencils available at the table where we are selling flowers. You may place your requests in a basket near the Mary statue in the front of OLG.

As we celebrate the gift of mothers and honor Our Blessed Mother, we also recognize that Mother's Day can be a difficult holiday for many. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Mother's Day. Carnations are $2 each, 3 for $5 or $10 for a bouquet.

SPRING FLOWER SALE

Think Spring! OLG Flower Sale orders will be accepted until May 1. Brighten your patio with the popular Patio Planters! Order pick up is on Friday, May 19 from 4-7pm. Order forms are in the periodical kiosk of the church lobby and on the OLG website. Questions/Volunteer at olgflowersale@gmail.com.

Unfortunately, the OLG kickball team, Kickin It With Jesus, will not be able to compete in the Macedonia kickball league, due to lack of teams to form a league. We were looking forward to having some fun and enjoying fellowship with each other.

We still want to play kickball and have opportunities for fellowship, so on Thursday nights from 7-8PM - we will be meeting here at OLG to play kickball with anyone who would like to play. This is for families, adults, and children. All are invited to come and play some kickball.

The Thursdays are April 27, May 4, May 11, May 18, and May 25. We will play as long as there is dry weather. If it is raining, kickball will be canceled, check for updates on our FB page.

Questions can be directed to Matt- matt@olg.cc.
