Dear Friends,

This Sunday is a very special day! 9 young people here at OLG have been preparing to receive the Eucharist for the first time. These students have worked hard in their preparation with Mrs. Toth and Ms. Ava. They have been accompanied on this journey with their parents as they participated in the Jesus Day together. It has been awesome to watch them prepare and grow in their understanding of the Mass and the Eucharist. I am very excited to be able to share this experience with them this weekend.

To our First Communion class: Today, you get the opportunity to experience Jesus in a new and exciting way, through the Eucharist. Joining your parents and friends at the table to partake in the Body of Christ, I pray that God pours out His abundant blessings on you. I pray that you feel God's love for you through the Eucharist as you receive His grace through the sacrament.

Congratulations and God bless each and every one of you!

The Liturgy of The Word

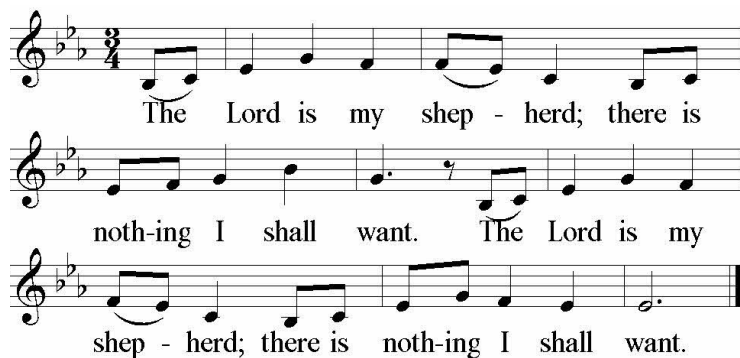

* 1st Reading: Acts 2: 14a, 36-41

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, "What are we to do, my brothers?" Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call." He testified with many other arguments, and was exhorting them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand persons were added that day.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.
2. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.
3. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
4. Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

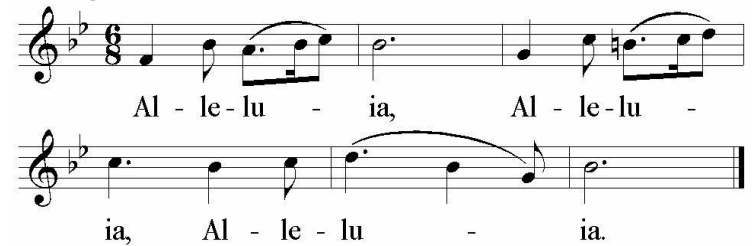

* 2nd Reading: 1 Peter 2: 20b-25

Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps. He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth. When he was insulted, he returned no insult; when he suffered, he did not threaten; instead, he handed himself over to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Tune: © 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Verse:

"I am the good shepherd," says the Lord;
"I know my sheep, and mine know me."
(John 10:14)

* Gospel John 10: 1-10

Jesus said: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them. So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,

On Mother's Day weekend, please join the LIFE Matters group in our Mother's Day flower sale! You may purchase a flower or bouquet for the mothers in your life, or buy them for Mary, our Blessed Mother, and offer her a spiritual bouquet and your prayer requests!

Following each Mass, parishioners are invited to write down their prayer intentions and offer them to Our Lady along with flowers of thanksgiving for her motherly love and intercession. There will be slips of paper and pencils available at the table where we are selling flowers. You may place your requests in a basket near the Mary statue in the front of OLG.

As we celebrate the gift of mothers and honor Our Blessed Mother, we also recognize that Mother's Day can be a difficult holiday for many. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Mother's Day. Carnations are $2 each, 3 for $5 or $10 for a bouquet.

Unfortunately, the OLG kickball team, Kickin It With Jesus, will not be able to compete in the Macedonia kickball league, due to lack of teams to form a league. We were looking forward to having some fun and enjoying fellowship with each other.

We still want to play kickball and have opportunities for fellowship, so on Thursday nights from 7-8PM - we will be meeting here at OLG to play kickball with anyone who would like to play. This is for families, adults, and children. All are invited to come and play some kickball.

The Thursdays are April 27, May 4, May 11, May 18, and May 25. We will play as long as there is dry weather. If it is raining, kickball will be canceled, check for updates on our FB page.

Questions can be directed to Matt- matt@olg.cc.

The Knights of Columbus will be collecting donations after all masses the weekend of May 6 & 7 to help people in the State of Ohio with developmental disabilities.
