Dear Friends,

We hear in the gospel about the punishment rendered to a person who refused to forgive:

His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have pitied your fellow servant as I pitied you?' Then, in anger, his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

We can get greedy in many ways, especially with forgiveness! We are quick to judge. This can lead to misunderstanding and unneeded anger! The man in the gospel was understood and forgiven. He failed to do the same and was owed a mere fraction of his debt.

The gospel calls us to understand. Mercy begins when we listen to the hearts of others. This allows the spirit of peace to dismiss the debts owed to us by others. When quick judgments occur, stop, pause, and seek understanding. This allows Jesus to enter our minds, hearts, and loves, causing release, forgiveness, and restoring and deepening relationships. God does this with us, and we are to do the same.

Instead, we prefer grudges and quick tempers. The attitudes cause divisions and turmoil. Of course, it is difficult to persevere in showing mercy to the repeated offense. Can we forgive 70 times seven times? God is the only one who can do the impossible, and we must turn to Him in mercy.

Thank you to everyone who made our annual picnic such a grand gathering. Janet Cox and her committee and volunteers made the afternoon possible. Our Knights cooked and cleaned up. The Hawks and the Chickens tied 7-7. in our annual softball game. We all enjoyed each other, met new friends, and look forward to other social gatherings at our Parish. PSR begins today. I invite you to our opening Mass on Monday at 6.30 pm. Come and support our children and catechists in this new year of faith.

God bless our Catechists, parents, and children!

Father Kevin

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading _____ Sirach 27:30 – 28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Response _____ Psalm 103: 1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12 Music setting: Norah Duncan IV

1. Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and all within me, his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and never forget all his benefits.
2. It is the LORD who forgives all your sins,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems you life from the grave,
who crowns you with mercy and compassion.
3. He will not always find fault;
nor persist in his anger forever.
He does not treat us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our faults.
4. For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so strong his mercy for those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far from us does he remove our transgressions.

*2nd Reading _____ Romans 14: 7-9

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Gospel Acclamation _____ Mass of St. Frances Cabrini Kevin Keil

Music © 2007, 2010, Kevin Keil (ASCAP). Published by OCP. • All rights reserved • Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-727738.

Verse

"I give you a new commandment," says the Lord;
"love one another as I have loved you."
(John 13: 34)

*Gospel _____ Matthew 18: 21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

The Gospel of the Lord. PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

*Homily _____ Reflection on The Word

*Profession of Faith _____ Apostle's Creed

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Last Saturday morning, my family gathered in the misting rain with so many other families to walk for Alzheimer's, raising awareness in our purple and fighting to end the disease. I appreciate your financial and prayer support as this cause is near to my heart, as it is with so many of you-evidenced by the names of your loved ones on the flowers that filled the banner that we walked with.

Your generosity helped our team raise over $5500 for the Alzheimer's Association for this walk!! I am so blessed to be a part of this caring and supportive faith family of Our Lady of Guadalupe! Please continue to pray that the end of this disease is near and that one day soon, we will see our first survivor!

Church Picnic Wrap-Up!

Our Parishioners are Awesome! Just like last year, there was light rain and cloudy skies but it didn't put the slightest damper on the festivities. And thanks to God, the weather held off and it turned into a beautiful day. While waiting in the food line, we were entertained by "Mayhem", a musical quartet. The amount and variety of side dishes and desserts were unbelievable! The only thing that surpassed the food was the Raffle Baskets! This year we raffled off 47 baskets! To those who donated baskets, thank you so very much, to those who bought tickets, thanks for your support, and to all the winners, congratulations.

We hope you enjoy your treasures. (All winners are posted on the bulletin board)

We gave out door prizes, spun the Welcoming Committee's wheel for prizes, visited the various ministry booths, and watched the Browns Game - - they WON!!! The kids had a great time on the inflatable obstacle course and participated in Fr. Kevin's Basketball Bonanza. We had fun watching them play in the whip cream eating contest, the Lucky Circle game and the Candy Hunt. The softball game between Fr. Kevin's Hawks and Deacon Dave's Chicken was a lot of fun and ended in a tie. All in all, the day was fun and festive, a good time had by all!

Special Thanks To

- ♦ Donna & Rick Betley for coordinating the kitchen and food line and to the outstanding kitchen helpers who kept the food flowing smoothly and who cleaned up afterwards.
- ♦ The Knights of Columbus - who helped with Saturday set-up, Sunday set-up, grilled all the hamburger & hotdogs, took care of the beverage tent and who were invaluable with clean-up.
- ♦ The members of Young at Heart for selling raffle tickets for the passed three weekends and throughout the entire picnic.
- ♦ DJ Tim who was our announcer and played all the fun tunes!
- ♦ To those who volunteered Saturday and Sunday with decorations, set-up, clean-up and who were there all picnic long doing whatever needed to be done.

Your efforts were greatly appreciated!

Proceeds will benefit the OLG Groundskeeping fund for ongoing beautification. Make your lasting message in celebration of a special occasion, in memory of, in gratitude of, in honor of or just because! Order forms are in the periodical kiosk in the church lobby and on the OLG website.

Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at 216-334-2999 or via email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.
