

Dear Friends,

Today we honor Jesus as our King. We hear him teach us He is present in the poor.

*Come, you who are blessed by my Father.
Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.*

*For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me,
naked and you clothed me,
ill and you cared for me,
in prison and you visited me.' (Mt 25)*

The King and the kingdom are present not in a place, country or palace. The kingdom is in our hearts. We know we are in the kingdom when we care for the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcoming, clothing and visiting the sick and the prisoner. We know the King when we are moved in directions and mysterious ways never imagined and into lives in need of mercy.

Silence and prayer are ways to connect with the Spirit and enter the kingdom. Our experience and culture are filled with noise distracting us into ways of selfishness and loneliness. Instead, take seriously the ways of Jesus, enter with him into prayer. Find him in the desperate, and gift Him in the poor. Our Giving Tree is provided for us as a sign of the kingdom. Please consider taking an ornament from the tree and participating in our communal care and compassion for those in need. In this way we take the command of Christ from this Church into our community and into the hearts of others.

You will receive an email from me soon inviting us to the holy season of Advent, Christmas, as the holydays to follow. Participate in the prayer of the Church and take seriously our call to give to the poor and financially support our wonderful parish of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Blessings,
Father Kevin

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading

Ezekiel 34: 11-12, 15-17

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly.

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

2. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil;
for you are at my side
with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

3. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

4. Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;

and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

*2nd Reading

1 Corinthians 15: 20-26, 28

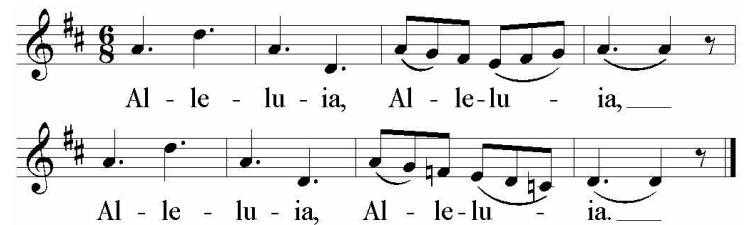

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

Matthew 25: 31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

*Profession of Faith

Apostle's Creed

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "the Virgin Mary," all bow.)

Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Giving Tuesday became a thing a few years ago to offer a chance where people could help non-profit organizations in the midst of Black Friday and Cyber Monday. This year, giving Tuesday is on November 28, when so many well-deserving charities look to raise funds for their programs. The Catholic Communities Foundation in Cleveland offers programs in the diocese the opportunity to join in their diocesan-wide campaign, #wegivecatholic.org.

This year, ALTARED youth ministry, here at OLG, is part of this campaign, that gives you the chance to support our youth program here. Your donations go directly to OLG and support OUR youth here. With your support, the money raised will help us bring in quality guest speakers, lower the cost for our teens to attend youth conferences and mission trips, and other fun opportunities where the teens can grow in their faith together with their friends and peers.

We thank you for your constant support of our teens and our youth here. ALTARED was created to keep our teens engaged in the Catholic faith and we look forward to seeing them grow spiritually and develop their personal relationship with Christ.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

Our society is full of materialistic and secular pitfalls: power, prestige, possessions, pride, jealousy. People seem to have adopted the idea that the world revolves around them and their personal needs, wants and desires. Success is measured by long hours and lots of stuff, but at what cost? Let's see...empty lifestyles, decrease in quality family time and family values, exhaustion, poor health, anxiety - all to accumulate things they think they earned, but which were truly gifted by God. Those who do not understand that everything they are, do and all they have is a gift from God, begin to worship the god of stuff. St. James reminds us that what we accumulate in this world is temporary and that a lifestyle based on it is meaningless and unfulfilling. Let us take a step back to reflect on our lives and lifestyles. Do we hoard our treasure or share it with others, especially those in need? Do we hoard our time or do we pour ourselves out for others? What is causing sinful behaviors and attitudes? Are we leading others into sinful practices? We have been given much! Let us be grateful and be good stewards of all we've been given, working not for earthly treasure, but for that which will last for eternity.
