

Here is a quote from the book, "The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic" by Matthew Kelly : "We tend to stumble through life a day at a time, and look back wondering where a summer, a year, or a decade went. The problem is, you don't stumble into great things, or even worthy things. They have to be sought out with intentionality."

We don't have great families just because we wish them into being. We don't have a great parish simply hoping that it will be. We don't make great Catholics just because we think it would be a nice idea.

We need to live our lives with "intentionality" so that we have a plan and we are successful at our plan.

And so I ask you, what are you going to do to live your family life, your vocation or your personal life in 2024 with more "intentionality?"

I wish you and your family a healthy and blessed New Year for 2024. May God bless you, protect you from all evil and bring you to everlasting life.

In Jesus' name,

Deacon Dave
