

From the Desk of Deacon Dave

A common reaction after hearing the story of the first disciples—fishermen who are told to come follow Christ and become fishers of men—is to try to imagine ourselves in a similar situation. There we are on the job, and Jesus walks up and tells us to drop what we're doing and come follow him. Could we do it? Would we be willing to quit our jobs just like that to follow Jesus? It's entirely possible that all Jesus had to do was say, "Come after me" to get Peter and Andrew to drop their nets, leave their families, and become disciples. But I believe it's far more likely that this story is the climax of a number of other encounters Jesus had with them. And, as we make our way through the gospels, we realize that most of the disciples don't stop being fishers. They just end up fishing fish as well as human beings their whole lives.

This is an important realization for those of us who tend to separate our faith from our work. Discipleship in Jesus is an all day, everyday activity. But it doesn't require quitting our jobs. We just like to think it does because then it makes it something we couldn't possibly do at the moment. Naturally, Jesus doesn't let us off that easily.

A spiritual director of mine informed me that I'm not just a Deacon on weekends or at liturgical events. I'm not just a CPA during the week or when I'm working. I'm not just a husband, a father or a grandfather only when I'm interacting with my wife, children, and grandchildren. I am a Husband and father, CPA, Deacon, 100% of the time simultaneously. These are the vocations that I have discerned. I shouldn't compartmentalize who I am based on who I am interacting with. I am a Husband and father, CPA, Deacon to you here at Our Lady of Guadalupe, not just a Deacon. I am a Husband and father, CPA, Deacon to my clients, not just a CPA. I am a Husband and father, CPA, Deacon to my family, not just a husband and a father much to their chagrin sometimes!!

Living out our vocation at home or at work doesn't call for you to limit yourself based on where you are. It requires you to be who God has called you to be wherever you are.

And so I ask you, how will you live out your vocation or vocations this coming week regardless of where you are?

In Jesus' love,

Deacon Dave

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading: Jonah 3: 1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the Gospel.

(Mark 1: 15)

*Gospel: Mark 1: 14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

*Homily Reflection on The Word of God

*Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ASH WEDNESDAY MASSES FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Ash Wednesday falls on February 14th this year.
Masses with the distribution of ashes will be offered at 12:00 Noon and 6:30 PM.

Ash Wednesday is a day of universal fast and abstinence in the Church. Since February 14 is celebrated by many couples as Valentine's Day, parishioners are reminded of the norms governing fasting and abstinence from meat since no dispensation will be given for this day which marks the solemn beginning of Lent. These norms are: For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

It's officially 2024 and these cold days have me already looking to summer! Last year, we hosted over 50 campers at VBS and the children had fun while learning how to shine Jesus' light! We started our planning nice and early and that was very helpful, as I felt we were very prepared when July came around. This year's VBS at OLG will be July 8-12, 2024. Our theme is going to be SCUBA, diving into friendship with God. If you would like to help with this year's planning and fun week of VBS, please plan to attend our first planning meeting on Wednesday, January 24, 2024 at 6:30PM in the PSR office. God may be inviting you to join the VBS team and use your gifts to lead the youth of OLG closer to Him!

This initial meeting will be an introduction to the theme as we will discuss decorating, games, and snacks! Bring any ideas you may have that will help make VBS the best ever this year! Let me know if you have any questions!
