Our Lady of Guadalupe
since 1967

Do you know when the last time Ash Wednesday and Valentine's Day shared the same day? Well, it wasn't too long ago- 2018. But before that, the last time it happened was back in 1945. The only other time that they will share February 14 during this century is 2029. It really is a rare occurrence that these two well-known, yet seemingly different days on our calendar collide.

On Valentine's Day we shower our loved ones with gifts of flowers, candy, and cards to remind them of the special place they hold in our hearts and lives. On Ash Wednesday, ashes are placed on our foreheads to remember that Christ died for our sins as we repent for the sins we have committed. On the surface, the two days couldn't be more opposite. However, they might be more alike than we realize.

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of our Lenten journey to the cross. During this period, we look to Jesus on the cross as the greatest example of love. John 15:13 states, "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." Love requires self sacrifice, because without that, is it truly love that we are experiencing? Jesus modeled this perfectly as he walked on earth but even more so when He gave up His life on the cross. The ashes that we will receive this Wednesday is love in the simplest form.

I'd like to share with you a couple of ways you might be able to bring love into your Lenten journey of fasting, almsgiving, and prayer.

The USCCB is sponsoring an in-home retreat for couples during National Marriage week that is happening now. The retreat is called Love Beyond Words and there is a link to the retreat on our website. The retreat is designed for you and your spouse to spend 10 minutes together each day to share in reflection and discussion about different topics.

I'd also like to invite you to experience Christ's love for us on the cross by joining me at a performance of Tetelestai this year. Last year, Our Lady of Guadalupe hosted 3 spirit filled performances of Tetelestai. My family and I are involved in the ministry again this year and would love to see you at one of our 5 venues across NE Ohio. See the performance schedule on the bulletin board in the narthex or you can visit www.livethepassion.org.

This Wednesday, come together as a family to receive ashes on Valentine's Day and when the ashes are outlined in the shape of a cross on your forehead, remember Christ's love for us. Then, go out and share Christ's love with others.

All love,
Matthew Griffith

The Liturgy of The Word

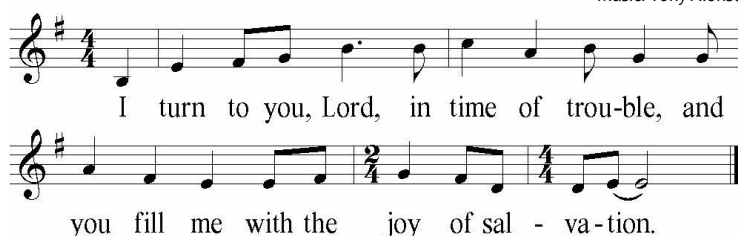

*1st Reading: Leviticus 13: 1-2, 44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head. "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Response Psalms 32: 1-2, 5, 11

Music: Tony Alonso

1. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is remitted.
Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes no guilt,
in whose spirit is no guile.
2. To you I have acknowledged, acknowledged my sin;
my guilt I did not hide.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD."
And you have forgiven the guilt of my sin.
3. Rejoice in the LORD; exult you just!
Rejoice in the LORD!
Ring out your joy, all you upright of heart!
Ring out your joy!

*2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:31 – 11:1

Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Gospel Acclamation Mass of Redemption

Music © 2000, World Library Publications • All rights reserved • Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-727738.

A great prophet has arisen in our midst,
God has visited his people.

(Luke 7: 16)

*Gospel: Mark 1: 40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere. The Gospel of the Lord. PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

*Homily Reflection on The Word of God

*Profession of Faith The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation,
He came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Liturgy of The Eucharist

Offertory I Danced in The Morning
LORD OF THE DANCE

1. I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

REFRAIN:

Dance, then, wherever you may be;
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the Dance, said he.

2. I danced for the scribe and the pharisee,
But they would not dance, and they wouldn't follow me;
I danced for the fisherman, for James and John;
They came with me and the dance went on. (to Refrain)

3. I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame;
The holy people said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high,
And left me there on a cross to die. (to Refrain)

4. I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black;
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back.
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone;
But I am the dance and I still go on. (to Refrain)

5. They cut me down and I leapt up high;
I am the life that'll never, never die;
I'll live in you if you live in me;
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he. (to Refrain)

Adult Confirmation

Adult
 Confirmation

It's not too late to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation. The Sacrament of Confirmation helps a person remain faithful to his or her baptismal commitment to witness to Christ and to serve others. The gifts of the Holy Spirit associated with Confirmation are strengths (or virtues) that Christian living requires if it is to be fruitful and complete.

If you are over the age of 16 and have not been Confirmed, please contact Deacon Dave Govern.
