

Our Lady of Guadalupe
since 1967

Well, here we are again, celebrating another Season of Lent. It seems ironic to use the word “celebrate” and “Lent” in the same sentence. I remember growing up, especially as a young student in a Catholic School (St. Stanislaus in Slavic Village), where the good Polish Sisters taught us well how we should carry ourselves during Lent to prepare for what was to come during the most Holy Week of the year and all that Jesus went through for us. It was to be our Easter cleansing. Stations of the Cross, Reconciliation (at that time referred to strictly as Confession), giving something up during Lent that we like, fasting, almsgiving, etc., all seemed rather depressing, austere, and incredibly somber. They said this was celebratory; how was this celebratory?

Fast forward a few years (and I mean way more than a few years!) when I finally began to understand what Lent was all about. I have learned and very much appreciate that it is a time for me to get rid of the things that hold me back from being a good Catholic Christian. I realize the joy in what these Lenten practices mean, and how they help me to become a better person. Lent is truly a celebratory time in which we prepare and cleanse ourselves to reignite the flame within us to be reborn as a follower of Jesus. That is why on Easter Sunday we renew our Baptismal promises. It's a new beginning for each of us and this is something that we get to celebrate year after year without question. When I think of being able to be reborn every year at Easter through my Lenten practices, austere or not, I find it very celebratory!

Don't forget we have Stations of the Cross on the Fridays of Lent at 7:00 PM and a weekday Mass on the Tuesdays of Lent at 12:00 Noon. Let's keep one another in prayer this Lent. May this season be celebratory for you!

Sincerely,
Don Grabow

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading: _____ Genesis 9: 8-15

God said to Noah and to his sons with him: "See, I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every living creature that was with you: all the birds, and the various tame and wild animals that were with you and came out of the ark. I will establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all bodily creatures be destroyed by the waters of a flood; there shall not be another flood to devastate the earth." God added: "This is the sign that I am giving for all ages to come, of the covenant between me and you and every living creature with you: I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the covenant I have made between me and you and all living beings, so that the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all mortal beings."

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Response _____ Psalm 25: 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Music: Michel Guimont

1. O LORD, make me know your ways.
Teach me your paths.
Guide me in your truth, and teach me;
for you are the God of my salvation.
2. Remember your compassion, O LORD,
and your merciful love, for they are from of old.
In your merciful love remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.
3. Good and upright is the LORD;
he shows the way to sinners.
He guides the humble in right judgment;
to the humble he teaches his way.

*2nd Reading: _____ 1 Peter 3: 18-22

Beloved:

Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit. In it he also went to preach to the spirits in prison, who had once been disobedient while God patiently waited in the days of Noah during the building of the ark, in which a few persons, eight in all, were saved through water. This prefigured baptism, which saves you now. It is not a removal of dirt from the body but an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

*Gospel: _____ Mark 1: 12-15

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

The Liturgy of The Eucharist

*Profession of Faith _____ The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation,
He came down from heaven,
(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man," all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The 2024 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal will take place this weekend. This year's appeal theme is "Transformed by your love." Your generous support will transform the lives of others, to offer dignity, possibilities and companionship to those who are most vulnerable.

Please take a moment to fill out one of the envelopes in your pew to support the ministries and services provided by Catholic Charities.

We appreciate your donation and will take special care to use it wisely in providing essential programs and services to people in need throughout the eight counties of the Diocese of Cleveland.

We invite you to view stories of inspiration and more information at CatholicCommunity.org/2024Appeal.
