

Since we are midway through Lent, I'd like to check in with you. Tell me, how is your Lenten journey going? Still on your no chocolate diet? Still off social media? Still praying more? If you are like me, it can be a struggle to make it through these 40 days with zero temptation and staying steadfast in our sacrifices. I don't think it's supposed to be easy. I'm sure it wasn't easy for Jesus out in the desert praying and fasting, either.

Lent is a time of reflection to give us the opportunity to be inspired by God through selfless acts, increased prayer, and abstinence. If you feel you can challenge yourself more over the next 3 weeks, there is still time. I encourage you to really dig into your prayer life for the remaining days of Lent. Make time for personal prayer, family prayer, Stations of the Cross, Confession, and partaking in the Eucharist at Mass every Sunday of Lent. I pray that God blesses you and places a fervor on your heart to continue to grow closer to Him all throughout the year.

In my role of Faith Formation Director, I see the need, not only for formation and fellowship opportunities for the youth, but for all of us! I'd like to share some ideas that we will be bringing to the parish soon geared for parents and families. To build community, we are planning Parent Night Out evenings and activities, stay tuned. Also, there will be a family event calendar coming out that will have activities for entire families (family hikes, kickball nights, movie nights, etc.)

In collaboration with 2 other parishes, OLG is hosting a marriage series for couples. The nights include a catered dinner and a Catholic speaker that will present on different topics of Christian marriages. To register and find more information please visit our website. I would invite you to consider registering whether you're newly married, been married for 50 years, and anywhere in between!

As we near Holy Week, I encourage you to pray where God may be leading you in your own relationship with Him. Then look to the church for resources to help you in that relationship. I'd be happy to help you in your search for those ways to develop a deeper closeness with God.

All love,
Matthew Griffith, Faith Formation Director

The Liturgy of The Word

*1st Reading: _____ 2 Chronicles 36: 14-16, 19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem. Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah: "Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled." In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing: "Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

1. By the rivers of Babylon there we sat and wept, remembering Sion; on the poplars that grew there
we hung up our harps.
2. For it was there that they asked us, our captors,
for songs, our oppressors, for joy.
"Sing to us," they said, "one of Sion's songs."
3. O how could we sing the song of the LORD
on foreign soil?
If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand wither!
4. O let my tongue cleave to my palate
if I remember you not,
if I prize not Jerusalem as the first of my joys!

*2nd Reading: _____ Ephesians 2: 4-10

Brothers and sisters: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved —, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

The word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD.

God so loved the world that He gave His only Son,
so everyone who believes in him
might have eternal life.
( John 3: 16 )

*Gospel: _____ John 3: 14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

The Gospel of the Lord.
